Miriam was my dresser when I did HELLO, DOLLY!, my very first show at the Melon Patch. That's the time the board fell out of the back of the theatre and hit her in the head...in the middle of a performance!!!! Thankfully, she was OK, and we became fast friends after that. She called me a week ago Friday to say goodbye. I was very touched, and will never forget that phone call. Blessings to all of you in the loss of such a fine woman! Billie Thatcher

Forty years ago this sad and lonely 11 year old girl was laying in the grass in the front yard of her Pop Pop's house staring up at the clouds on the day of his funeral . Aunt MurMur was one of the few people who consoled me. I remember her words like it was yesterday, "Susie, see that hole in the clouds up there? That's where your Pop Pop's sole went through to get to heaven." She said it with such love, compassion and tenderness. She never knew what her loving kindness meant to me that day. Rest in peace Aunt MurMur. Thank you for the love.

Ken & Family, So sorry to hear about your Mom. She was the person that interviewed me 30 years ago at Pawling Rubber. I was so nervous and she told me "don't worry....you're hired!" She was always so sweet to everyone and one of my closest friends at Pawling. Treasure your memories of her always and know that you are in our prayers.....Lillian & Jim Murray
