When my parents (Hobert & Dovie Dehart) moved us to Oxford in 1955 Miss Ann was my first teacher. She helped me to get acquainted with my classmates in the 6th grade. While in the 7th & 8th grades she encouraged me and was a great influence on my growing up. Teressia Dehart Teboe

You made the world a better place by your presence; you taught so many of us not just from books but to enjoy music, laughter and just life in general. My heart broke when I heard of your leaving us but I know you would only smile and wave to us at this point of your journey. Thank you for having touched so many lives over the years. Rhonda Moses
