The world lost a good man when you left Mr. Crawfoot. I was just a young man when we were friends back at Bonnybrook outside of Carlisle , Pa. You were a kind, thoughtful man that enjoyed the outdoors, hunting ,and fishing and you were kind enough to include me in many of your small game and turkey hunting adventures, with your faithful dog "Rags"chasing many a rabbit that fell to the sharp crack of your double barrel 20 gauge.I learned many good lessons as you let me earn summer money cleaning your horse stables and doing misc. yard chores. May our gracious God bless you and I hope I will be blessed to see you again in the Lords wonderful hereafter. Your young but now old friend , Mike Duncan, Lakeland, Florida
