Uncle Bill was married to my Aunt Deede, although for much of my life we lived miles apart, Uncle Bill has done so many nice things for myself and my daughter Abigayle.. He has helped and cared enough to lend a helping and kind hand to my daughter and I, for that I will never be able to share how truly grateful I am for him, and the impact he had in our lives. I am so happy that Uncle Bill, such an amazing and strong man for the Lord.. Is now able to be in Heaven! Until we meet again Uncle Bill, love you! Your Niece, Becca

I am so thankful for Bill. He was a good man. He was my brother in law and a loving, kind, caring uncle to my children. We loved going to visit my sis and him on summer vacations. There was never a dull moment as Bill always kept me laughing. May God give peace to my sister, his children and to their families. We love you Bill.

Bill was an older cousin with whom I didn't have much in common, but he was always loving and gracious to me, and in later years when I would see him, he greeted me with a nickname that only a few relatives, including his mother, used and that made me feel so connected to him. I smile when I think of him and am glad that he is a believer and in heaven. My prayers are for Deede that she can find peace and comfort.
