I am so sorry for the loss of a life to whom I did not know, but I do know Cara McCormic and I know that she is a very sweet person so I can only imagine from reading all the post that, Noella McCormic was as sweet because she would have taught Cara how to be just that. Rest in Heaven and may God bless the family that is grieving and get them through it together.

Noella was always upbeat & friendly. She did my hair for many years when she had a shop & came to my home a couple of times to do my hair when I wasn't feeling well. She gave my daughter, Kristie, her very first haircut over 40 years ago. I am glad to have known Noella. May her family be comforted during this difficult time.
