He was an U.S.Army Veteran serving during the Korean War as an MP personally attending to driving General Truman in Atlanta along with other duties including a major contributor to the Army Headquarters Baseball Team! After his Honorable Discharge as a Sergeant, Art went on to work for his brother Bill where he got his Plumbing experience. In New Hampshire he worked for several large constructions firms as a Inspector/Estimator having a license to work in Maine, Vermont and New Hampshire. Among the jobs were Hospitals, Schools and even Okemo & Stowe Ski Resorts. These balls went to the Pro shop for use on the Driving Range. Art loved singing at Karaoke, Among his favorites are "Unchained Melody" & "Some Enchanted Evening" which described how he and his wife met in 1993 at his sisters retirement party from the ministry. (Unity Church of Christianity, Valley Stream,NY).

Dear Laureen, I remember meeting Art at Cousin Tom's 60th Birthday Gala in NYC. What impressed me most about him was that he was a kind man and very easy to talk to. He clearly loved you and cared a great deal about your family. One of my favorite Gardner family photos includes you standing between Art and Uncle Bill. I'm sure Uncle Bill will proudly introduce Art to our family singing around Aunt Ruth's piano. May God bless Art, and our loved ones, with heavenly peace, Gary & Tatta

My father, Art King, passed on January 1st.He'll celebrate the new year in his heaven that I'm sure includes televised Yankee games, a golf course full of friendly foursomes, and a karaoke bar that serves a not-too-fancy beer.The New York Daily News will be delivered direct to Art daily by his golden (golf-ball) retriever, Buddy...and there will be a picture of Laureen on his wall to make him smile.My dad was a kind, easy going and uncomplicated man. Thank you, his many friends, for the good times you shared with Art that colored his years in Florida so brightly.My brothers, my son and I are grateful, and offer condolences back to you.Laura
