Barbara Northcutt lit a candle in honor of Eileen.

Man may never know how many lives Miss Eileen touched. All I know is that this fine Christian woman was a positive presence in the lives of my children and grandchildren. Her testimony can be seen in the lives of her descendants. A saint has gone home. Our deepest sympathy. Barbara Northcutt and family

With Deepest Sympathy to all the family of this special Lady. To know her was to know Jesus. I will always remember the stories she shared and treasure my hand towels with the crocheted tops she made and gave me when I come to visit.. She was always busy...never idle,always a guiding light . I pray the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Prayers for strength and comfort for your days ahead . Always remember we will always have the Loving memories to hold dear to our hearts until we see her again. That Glorious day will come!Love,Hugs ,and prayers . Alene & Herb
