A lovely couple, Grace was right by George's side whenever I saw them at our Condo complex. George was a marine, so my first greeting to him was Semper Fi and he responded proudly. I learned he was in the second wave of Marines that landed on Guadalcanal. I have been praying for him for some time now and I will continue to pray for the repose of George's soul, and for peace for Grace and the rest of his family. They were the finest people who I was lucky enough to share our condo development with. I know George is now in the arms of the Lord and if Grace ever needs anything at all, I would consider it a privilege to be of service. Bob and Karen McKenna, Unit #501
