Judy I am so sorry for your loss. Jim was a wonderful man and will be missed. He always made me smile and forever with the camera, but in a loving way. I will miss seeing him either in Tennessee or at your home in Florida. You are in my prayers and I know he will meet up with Dave and watch over us. Kris Kessinger

You are forever in our hearts Uncle Jim. I will always cherish the memories of you wanting us to pull your hair to make it grow as kids and massaging your eyelids. Too cute. One of the most chill people I knew who was a great photographer and writer of Calligraphy! I think you will always hold record for eating most corn on cob ever! Love you and may you be at peace....
