I just wanted to share a memory of my Nephew Kyle that It's been hard and shocking to know that you have left us. I still feel like it was yesterday when Kyle came over with his beautiful girlfriend. She made him a happier man and I could see that he found his soul mate. Kyle and his cousin Ryan were off to the beach that morning, and the three of them were all ready to go and had everything packed. I kept trying to give them stuff to take. But kyle had it all together. Kyle said I just want to spend the day with my cousin before he goes off to the Military. I will never forget that morning. He said Aunt Sonya I love you and I don't care about anything that is going on with you and my dad. I said don't worry it's just that brother and sister disputes.. That's what happens in families all the time. I said I love you too and come back to stay you and your girlfriend anytime you want..He gave me Hudson as he was walking out the door..It seems like that beach trip was just last week. Time Flies so fast. Well with the shocking news of Kyle leaving us so soon and went heaven. Ryan had given me the news. We were soo in shock and was so upset. I just couldn't even talk or say nothing.Then the tears were exploding. Ryan went to his room and stayed to his self. We just didn't want him to leave us this soon.. Way too soon. We love him so much. Kyle always would make you smile or laugh about anything. He was always good hearted and do anything for you if you asked him. Ryan was saying that he wanted to hook up with his cousin to go to the beach again when he came home during the summer. But unfortunately it was too late. Because we found out that he left us and went to heaven to soon. Kyle is already enjoying the beach that was very favorite place to go. So for now we are waiting to catch that bus and when it stops to pick us up (Heaven) will will be seeing Kyle again at the beach. Kyle has given us something to hang on too from the last memory together as a family. We love and miss you Kyle. We no in our hearts that we will be missing Kyle so much because he always gives us love and laughter all the time. Our time with him was cut to short. But we will see him again soon. Then we can all spend that time at the beach again as a family. This was Kyle's favorite place he always loved to be. I have a poem I would like to pass on in my next post from his grandpa Williams the he gave to all of his family for a (memory) to remember as we go on each day and then when we will see each other again in Heaven....We love you and miss you always. Kyle will be in our hearts forever,Aunt Sonya, Uncle Eric and Your cousin's Ryan & Josh

Prayers for the family and friends. Kyle was a great friend. Always there when someone needed him and would do anything for his family and friends. Kyle was outgoing and thats what made him such a wonderful person. He was taken way too early, but God needed him more than we did apparently. #FLYHIGH my dear sweet friend. We will see you again, but until then we will be thinking about you and missing you. We love you Kyle.

I meet Kyle though one of my bestest friends in the world His mommy Chriss. I have known Kyle since he was like 8 he was such a sweet and kind little boy. Even when I was having a very bad day he always could make me smile.. He was always there for me like a baby brother.. In the most hardest times of my life, I will always be greatful for having him in my life.. It was so great to watching him grow into a wounderful young man ... I so wish you didn't leave us so young but I have to tell myself God needed you now so he had to take you.. I will never forget you my little brother I will always love you now Rest in peace Love you always Echo Adkins
