Lewis Mcclung posted:

There are no words to say how shocked and empty we felt when Michael left us, even though we did not know much about him personally. We did, however, know how honest, hard working and dedicated he was in every job he did for us. May Abba Father comfort and bless his family.

Mike was a hell of a Water guy. Though only knowing him for a short time he showed me love and shared his love of the Lake and river as we were able to venture some of the most beautiful area Florida has to offer I will miss him dearly. Rest in Paradise Captain Mike One love brother.
