Aunt Karen was a mentor and a good advice giver.. Always talked about Jesus and how she was ready to meet him.. She was a strong woman and a fighter and now she is out of pain and at peace.. I love her and will cherish our memories even as a little girl she has always loved me and i will miss our talks, visits, and her pretty smile.. Fly high Aunt Karen see you when i cross over.. Love you : Jaime

Karen fought a long, hard battle. The last time I saw her she told me she was ready to go but would work for Jesus until He called her home. I'm sure by now you've seen your Mama, Daddy , Aaron and Troy but most of all, you've seen Jesus Your work is done, cousin. I love you
