Ted had such a gentle, kind, and loving heart. I'll miss how he came with a special knock to my door every day, delivering the newspaper and a smile. "Good morning, Daniel", was the daily greeting in his cheerful British accent. Even as recently as a few months ago, he would motor over on a walker under his own power, closely watched by a care-giver. Ted was a great friend to mom and dad. Dad was just four months older than Ted and they enjoyed sharing war stories - Dad in the Army and Ted in the Royal Air Force. We were royally pulling for him to reach his birthday milestone in February but it wasn't in God's plan. We'll miss you, dear neighbor, Ted. You are cherished. God keep you in His care and wrap you in His everlasting arms of protection. Dan Malenke
