Harley N. (Bill) Linthicum

AUG 22, 1937 - NOV 9, 2018

Harley N. (Bill) Linthicum, age 81, of Avon Park, FL, passed away November 9, 2018 in Lake Wales, FL. Harley was born on August 22, 1937 to Harley E. and Elizabeth (Standley) Linthicum in Springfield, Ohio.

Bill was a skilled handyman for himself and his friends. He discovered golf after retirement and would play often.

Bill loved his family and is survived by his son Michael and wife Debbie of Springfield, Ohio; daughter Brenda and husband Dan of New Carlisle, Ohio; Grandson Chad (Tara) of Oak Ridge, Tennessee; 3 Great-Grandchildren; his faithful companion Sophie and many friends at Reflections on Silver Lake and in Ohio.

Harley is preceded in death by his loving wife Sylvia (Blount), his parents, son Jeffrey and grandson Joshua.

Banks/Page-Theus Funeral Home is assisting the family with the arrangements.

Jack Kroger posted:

Bill will be missed as a friend, helper and neighbor. He was always willing to pick us up and take us to the airport. We so appreciated him. We were with Bill and Sylvia on so many occasions and enjoyed many card and domino games together. Lots of good memories. Thoughts and prayers for his family. Jack and Anna Mae Kroger
