I will always remember calling Tucker to say hey when attending a conference in Orlando. We ended up talking for almost 3 hours. I will cherish the memory of the stories she told me. Some of my earliest memories were visits to Savannah, the croquet games, the huge bridges to cross. Her sister, my mom Anna (Mama Dinky), was horrified when I told her how frightened I was staying at the childcare facility on the AFB. Tucker probably would have been too. Our dear, incredible Uncle Jim was the best gift she ever gave us. With love, Aunt Tucker, til we meet again. Love to the family.

Mama's my ❤️ life, my breath, my rock, She is always there whenever we need her or not. She could see right through me and always tell which side of the devil I stood. Right there with Jesus 🙏 she loved me and my light shines with her.
