Nancy J. Quinlan

OCT 15, 1937 - JAN 12, 2020

Nancy J. Quinlan, 82, of Oxford, passed away on January 12, 2020, at Cornerstone Hospice in The Villages, FL. Nancy was born on October 15, 1937 in Brooklyn, New York to Al and Emily (Gelling) Weiss. Nancy married the love of her life, George Quinlan, on September 12, 1966. Nancy and George moved to Hudson, Florida from New York in 1993 and then to The Villages in 2016. Nancy grew up in Baldwin, NY, graduating from Baldwin High School. She attended the University of Bridgeport in Connecticut and worked until her retirement as an executive secretary. Nancy enjoyed bowling on her league in Hudson. She volunteered with the Pasco County Sheriff's office helping with the annual Thanksgiving turkey distribution for those in need. Nancy loved her cats and had several over the years, with special affection for Denver and Jesse. Her love of animals also extended to her Basset Hound "Red". Nancy and George loved cruising, having taken 37 all over the world. In addition to her husband of 53 years, George, she is also survived by her stepson, George Quinlan Jr. and wife, Joyce Cooper of Maine, stepdaughter, Dawn Quinlan and husband, Marcelino Gutierrez of Oxford, FL, grandchildren, Jeffery, Daniel and Kelly Quinlan, and great-grandchildren, Maxwell and Ellie. There will be a private visitation for immediate family on Friday, January 17, 2020 at 10:30 AM to 11:30 AM at Banks/Page-Theus Funeral Home with a funeral service at 11:30 AM. Burial will be on Friday, January 17, 2020 at 1:00 PM at Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell, Florida.

nancy and I got close because our parents both had boats at the Freport Yacht Club right next to each other. Shared a lot of time together and when she met George we double dated. Nancy and her husband George are our daughter's God Parents. Super great people and a lot of fun.
