Randy, Ronnie, Deloren, Jeanie, Jerry, Jolinda and families, I am so sorry that I was not present at Aunt Nancy's home going service. I did not know that she had left for heaven. I found out by way of being online and looking at obituaries on Banks funeral home website. Please forgive me. My heartfelt and sincere prayers for peace that surpasses all understanding and strength from our Heavenly Father is with each one of you. I am sure she is rejoicing in heaven.

My sisters and I knew Nancy Jo pretty much all our lives. Louise and I grew up on Lee Street where the Strayhorns also lived. We spent a lot of time with Nancy Jo and Mary Lynn and the other young people on our street. Nancy cooked french fries over a fire in back of their garage for us kids as she was a little older so was allowed to do that. We played with yo yo you there and that is how I learned. Nancy J. gave me a small yo yo which I still remember, it was blue and red. A lot of times walking down the street when we passed the Strayhorns' house we would hear her playing the piano. One song I especially remember hearing was "Trust and Obey". I looked forward every Reunion to talking with her. It hurts to know she has passed. Louise and I send our sympathy to her family for the loss of this special person. We love you Nancy Jo and will miss you so much., Danny Gail McElrath

Aunt Nancy was a big part of my life. I've loved her for as long as I can remember. She taught me in Sunday School when I was a young girl. She and my mother were as close as sisters and shared many happy times thru the years, especially when their children were young. I will always hold Aunt Nancy close in my heart
