My nanny was the most wonderful woman or individual that I have ever met. The most sweetest and kindest who would take her shirt off her back just to help another. There will never be another one like her and this is the hardest and the most painfulest passing of someone that I've had to deal with. I don't think I'll ever be over losing my grandmother. My beautiful angel. My nanny my everything. Life will never be the same without you. That's one thing for sure. I miss your smile. I miss your hugs. I miss your laughter. I miss the smell of your perfume white diamonds. I do anything to have you back Nanny. God knows I would till the day we meet again dancing in the sky and watch over me

Im just now learning of her passing. And to her kids grandkids and greatgrandkids my heart goes out to you all. I remember the first time I meet aunt Elsie and uncle bill. I was 9. We drove from Arkansas to Florida in 86. See I was raised by uncle bills youngest sister sybieth (sibby) and her husband billy. I instantly felt like part of the family. After aunt Sibby passed in 2002 I kinda lost touch with her side, until recently and just found aunt Elsie on Facebook. I asked her if she remembered me not by name or face but because of aunt Sibby..she thought the world of Elsie. So all the mcanally children are once again all together with their mom and dad. I Bet they are kicking up some dust.

Nanny was the strongest person I know , she helped everyone without judgment. You are so missed but I know your at peace with your family in heaven. We love you very much and appreciate all that you have done. You were a light in so many people life and touched so many hearts . I will continue to remind Courtney and Seabrook what an amazing women you were.

There are no words to express my sorrow and the pain we all are feeling right now with aunt lou going to heaven...The bible says we must rejoice cause they have gone home.Home to no more pain or suffering...Home to be with family for ever more....I must say that when my brother n I lose an aunt or uncle ,we lose a parent..It took all my aunts n uncles to raise us and for that were eternally grateful..and for the ass whoopings... It made us who we are today...I will not say goodbye cause that is forever...I will see my (mom n aunt) in paradise!!!Love you forever n always aunt lou and dont worry about us we have learned from you how to take care of one another....
