Jerry (we called him "Bones") has been part of Baillie Hunt Camp since he was a teenager. He always had a smile and encouragement for all, and loved having his picture taken with other hunters and their trophy kills. He was able to attend a camp dinner this past January thanks to his brother Bud, and all were so pleased to see him although we knew he wasn't well. He will be missed but fondly remembered in our heart and campfire stories. Our condolences to his wife Sandy and family. Much love. Pat Baillie Blount for Baillie Camp
