Ernest Kenneth Fiedler

NOV 9, 1950 - MAY 17, 2022

Ernest Kenneth Fiedler Sr., 71, of Sebring, Florida passed away Tuesday, May 17, 2022, at his home in Sebring.

Ernie was born Nov. 9, 1950, in Chicago Heights, Illinois to Walter and Mildred (Weeks) Fiedler. He was an avid sports fan who loved his family and enjoyed going for car rides and walks. He was a quiet man who enjoyed watching TV with his wife, Virginia. He was a fan of all Chicago sports. He collected superhero and Elvis memorabilia and was a fan of James Bond.

He worked for 30 years in a Lyme factory, was a Walmart manager for 19 years and worked at Circle K and Save-A-Lot. He loved big family gatherings and getting together with family at the holidays.

Ernie was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Paul J. Fiedler; and a sister, Diana (Fiedler) Frank.

He is survived by his wife, Virginia "Geny" (Edmond) Fiedler; two sons, Kenneth "Ken" J. Fiedler (Amy) of Belding, Michigan and Ernest "Bubba" K. Fiedler (Kathleen) of Zephyrhills, Florida; stepchildren, Brian Baum of Belding, Michigan, Eric Smith of Chicago, Illinois, Darrin Smith of San Tan Valley, Arizona, Kevin Williams of Chicago, Illinois (deceased), Amy Looney of Texas, Christopher Williams of Chicago, Illinois, Robert Miller (Teresa) of Avon Park, Florida, Christina (Miller) Sharpless of Bradenton, Florida,

He was my bonus dad. He always joked about my height and joked about his bears team was better then my bucks team which I learned not to bet him about it lol. Because of him I always had a father figure around and because of him I gained a bigger family and siblings! I will miss him. Love you popa!
