JUL 18, 1933 - DEC 9, 2010

Charlene Allegre Isom Hopkins, 77, of Frostproof, Fl, passed away peacefully December 9, 2010 with her family at her side. She died unexpectedly at Florida Hospital Heartland Division, Sebring, FL. She was born July 18, 1933 in Greenwood, IN to Vennis and Wilma Isom. She grew up in Greenwood and graduated from Greenwood Community High School. She was a graduate of Indiana Central College (now the University of Indianapolis), with a degree in Elementary Education and later received a Master of Arts in Education from Ball State University. In 1956 she married Edward C. Hopkins of Connersville and they moved to Oxford, OH where he was attending Miami University and she taught at the Sommerville, OH, elementary school. They moved to Connersville in 1958, where their two children were born. She taught in the Connersville Public Schools as an elementary teacher from 1958 through 1964. In 1964 they moved to Greenwood, where they both taught elementary education. She taught in the Greenwood Public Schools for 26 years at the V. O. Isom Central Elementary School, named in honor of her father, a Greenwood educator. She retired in 1990. They wintered in Frostproof from 1991 until 1995, when they moved to Lilly Lake at Frostproof. She was a member of the Christian Church in Frostproof. . On line condolences may be shared by visiting www.bankspagetheus.com. Arrangements are entrusted to Banks/Page-Theus Funeral Home, Wildwood.

Charlene was one of my mother's (Mary Hyatt) closest friends. Emily and I were in the same graduating class at Greenwood and Mom and Charlene became close working together on marching band activities. Their friendship continued until my Mom's passing in 2001. I have fond memories of Charlene coming to Mom's when my kids were little and also bringing her granddaughters to visit. Charlene loved to be on the go and she would pick Mom up (Mom never got her driver's license) and they would run errands around town. I think it was about 5 years ago that I last saw Charlene. She brought me some pictures she had found when cleaning out. She was a wonderful lady!##imported-begin##Janice Hyatt Nix##imported-end##

Mrs Hopkins was my 4th grade teacher at Isom. She had attended high school with my dad, Jim, and would always tell me I was "just like my father"...absent-minded. She was a great teacher, and always ready with a smile. She also volunteered for many years at the VBS program at Greenwood Christian Church where she would lead the outdoor activities. I saw her with Ed last Summer at White Castle in Greenwood, and she really looked no different than she did in 1974! We sat and chatted--I had my grandma, Bernice with me too. I had pictures of my sister's children and she got a kick out of seeing those. She will be missed!You are in my thoughts,Jaime Coffman##imported-begin##Jaime Coffman##imported-end##
