It is so very sad that Lila no longer graces this world. We had known each other almost 50 years, and I still remember the first time I ever saw her. It was at a quarry in Wisconsin. I was Scuba diving and she was sitting on top of one of the large flat rocks above us. She was all dressed up and very beautiful. I asked one of the guys diving with me..."Who is the mermaid?" She made everything beautiful! As long as I am on this earth she will live in my heart.##imported-begin##Gina Cozzini##imported-end##

It is 31 years since I lived with Lila and her family as an exchange student from Norway. Lila became like a second mother to me, and I will always remember her, and I am thankful for the good memories. Elisabeth##imported-begin##Elisabeth Hartmann Stokke##imported-end##

Take comfort in knowing that now you have a special guardian angel to watch over you. Even though there will be an empty chair at the holiday table this year, it will be filled with loving memories of all the wonderful times you spent together. Our sincere condolences to all of the family.

Lila was a joy to know who showed much love and compassion to everyone who walked through the doors at Hope Lutheran Church. She was a wonderful friend in Christ and an amazing talented co-worker. My heartfelt sympathy to her family and other close friends. In Sympathy, Rev. Betty Lord Walters
