Every time I think of you, Tracy, I smile. Remembering the times in the warehouse and what a great group of people were there, your sense of humor, laughing, your stories about kids you coached, the way you brought sunshine into a room. I hope God blesses you with peace and you now find eternal happiness in His presence.##imported-begin##Ann Deneau##imported-end##

Tracy, Tracy, Tracy, where do I start?? First you were always the strongest, funniest person I know. If I was having a bad day you could always make me smile.. I don't know how in the world you, Gerri and I stayed outta trouble when we were in our late teens and early twenties!! To all those nights spent with you at the store, riding around all night, all the laughs, fights (of course we were on the same side) cries, and car trouble..I say "Cheers to the good times" I will miss you Ms. Witty.. May you be at peace and be surrounded by His unconditional love, with Gods grace consuming you!! We will meet again my dear friend.. So until then.. Keep my seat warm.. :-))##imported-begin##Kathy Liggett McKinney##imported-end##

I will miss you forever. I will never forget Busch Gardens and getting lost on the way home, the fish feeding, fresh brownies with ice cold milk, scary movies and dinner, long nights up at your house, your cinnamon tea (YUCK!), my favorite... dog - Boomer, Outback, the sense of pride that you made me feel. You always told me I was the daughter you never had and that meant so much to me, but boy I knew those standards were high :) There are so many things that I have great memories of with you and there is not a room in my house that does not have something in it that you didn't buy or give to me. You will be in my heart always. The hurt and questions will never subside but I hope one day that my heart will be able to heal. I will cherish our friendship, which was so much more, forever. I love you and I hope you will be able to find peace in your final resting place.##imported-begin##Kelly##imported-end##

Tracy was one of the strongest, loving and giving cousin, friend, anyone could have. Days back when we spent time together laughing and enjoying weekends just hanging around with movies and some of her great cooking. We laughed, enjoyed each others company and enjoyed our road trips to yard sales and markets. Make god bless you baby girl, I miss you and our funny conversations and your supportive calls. I just wish you would have let me in more so we could have talked this through. May you rest in peace. I Love you Cousin. Friends remember this: God promises a safe landing, not a calm passage. If God brings you to it, He will bring you through it. The bible promises that he will not put more on us than we can bare. I pray for all of the friends and the family.##imported-begin##Darryl Stephens##imported-end##

Sunny days seem to hurt the most.I wear the pain like a heavy coat.I feel you everywhere I go. From your favorite chair that is now in my living room, to the notepad on the fridge, to the pictures that you hung on Addison's wall. You were there for race parties, holidays, and summers at the beach. For my families birthdays, graduations; through sickness, health, heartbreaks, and joys. The only thing that gives me hope,is I know I'll see you again some day.##imported-begin##Robin Chancey##imported-end##
