Family of Frank Smart, You have been blessed to have had such a godly man as your father, grandfather,ggfather, gggfather. He is your example to follow. He loved God and you. That is the highest call in this life. I can see him still jumping around praising God, now in heaven with all your Christian family who have gone before. Isn't that a delightful picture? He was always an enthusiastic, faithful member of our Sunday school class. Never without a smile, and encouraging word. I hope you hold his memory high for all the children to know, so they too will love Jesus like Grampa Frank did (does). Blessings from Jesus, Rachel Buckner##imported-begin##Rachel Buckner##imported-end##

Brother Frank you will be missed. Your presence at Sumterville Assembly Of God was always a delite. Your bubbly and Livly manorism reflected Jesus to a tee. I pray there is Fishing in heaven for I am certin I will many of us will join you at the ole fishing hole. Till then dance your heart out before the father just as king David did!##imported-begin##Jessie E Woodard Jr##imported-end##
