I met Roxanne when she came to buy a French Bulldog puppy girl from me...She stayed quite awhile and we laughed and talked dogs of course.As the puppies played in front of us she fell in love with the boy puppy... decisions, decisions.In the end she took both puppies! Blake and Bonnie. I visited her beautiful home many times usually taking my older gang to play and visit too.We showed little Bonnie a few times as well.I'm going to miss her friendship, joy and love with her babies she so loved and took care of with enthusiasm.May God bless her and your family.I am truly sorry

I had never meet someone so full of life and a good heart as Rexanne. She was the girl of my dreams in the 1960s but we traveled different paths. I have fond memories of her mother, Ann,, who always treated me with kindness and more tolerance then I deserved.
