I'll miss Wayne's quick wit. He always made people laugh. He never cared much for worldly possessions, but he would give you his last dime if he thought you needed it. Wayne lived his life on his own terms, free-bird-like. I admire him for that. RIP my brother! I love you, Wayne!

Hey brother 🙏 I already miss you so much!! In an instant, I think I need to call my brother...and in that same instant, I realize I can't!! You were always there for me in our childhood, teen years, and even adulthood. I will always remember you as my protector. Through thick and thin...you always made my life better... Our talks, our memories, and even our dreams. You were always there. One of my memories... I have to laugh 😂 is when you took my brand new Schwinn bicycle apart as spare parts for one of your fancy smanchy chopper style bicycles. It did look pretty cool what you designed with extended forks and high pitched handle bars. Glad I could help you back then. You definitely before your time on the EV arena. Never good bye...I will see you again 😊 RIP... My friend, my brother... 🎵 Get your motor running... 🎵
