To family members of Mr. LawrenceAs a fellow human and neighbor (as we have been instructed by our Savior Jesus Christ to consider one another), I extend my deepest and sincere sympathy on the loss of your relative.I too know the pain of losing a loved one. It is not normal for us to go through this pain. Our heavenly father created us to live forever and thus the feeling of eternity is in our hearts as the Bible tells us in Ecclesiastes 3:11; Making death a harsh and painful experience.I relied on family and God for support when experiencing this pain with the loss of my sister to cancer. I hope you have other family members to lean on, but don't forget to lean on Our Heavenly Father for support as he wants us to do (Psalms 34:17, 18.)I have found comfort in the hope of the promised resurrection expressed by Jesus Christ himself recorded for us at John 5:28, 29. I receive comfort because I believe in this promise and the one who will cause it to be so, Jehovah God.Be strong my neighbor, and may the peace of our merciful God Jehovah be with you.My most sincere and deepest sympathy, your neighborNereida N-G.Bushnell, FI

We'll cherish all the great adventures we had with Glen and Barb. From 4 wheeling in our Jeeps, to the cruise to Caribbean islands. We would of never bought that race horse if it hadn't been for Glen. Although we didn't win, we still had a blast trying. The great roaring slippers you gave Rick. All the great restaurants, and hot tips about traveling in our Motor Home. We ask Glen how to winterize our coach and his reply "Go South". He always had a great answer. We will truly miss him. I pray that God will give you, Barb the strength and courage you need to continue on. God Bless you and your family.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence, Family, and Friends of Glen: I was one of the many Marines who served with Glen (Staff Sgt. Lawrence) at Chu Lai in '65 and '66. I had the highest regard for him as a Marine and a good guy. I also thought he was the smartest and most capable amongst us when it came to solving problems with our radar equipment. My wife, Kim, had the chance to meet him when he and Barbara were kind enough to stop a few years ago and have lunch with us in Sierra Vista, Arizona, when he was on one of his RV jaunts. I was so glad that I got to see him, one last time. I will miss his e-mails, and I will miss him. Bless you all. Semper Fi, Tom Collins

We remember so many good times. If we wanted to know a good place to eat just ask Glenn and Barb. They always had a wonderful experience somewhere close. The work camping at Blooming Prarie Mn. was so much fun the times we worked together and just enjoyed each others company. I still wear the darling ear rings you made for me. Precious times to remember!! Love Glenn and Dawn Sanders

What I will miss most about Glen,? There are many things like going for Dairy Queen 30 miles away from where we were, his voice on the phone, his hugs and laughter. Barb and Glen have been good friends and traveling buddies.Sandy

Father has several meanings, to me a father is someone who loves, cares and provides for you. I would say that my dad was the best. He loved us, cared for us and provided so much to us. He would listen, give advice and help when needed. Dad enjoyed the outdoors, reading, gardening, woodworking, traveling and most of all his family. He loved sharing all his adventures he and mom went on. Plus the beautiful pictures. I miss him so much and sad that I wont get to hear his voice or get another hug from him. Love you so much dad.
