Frederick Louis Huston Sr.

SEP 26, 1927 - DEC 3, 2024

Frederick Louis Huston, Sr., 97, passed away Tuesday, December 3, 2024 in Sebring, FL. He was born September 26, 1927, in Kokomo, IN to Harry Samuel Huston, Sr. and Ida Myrtle (nee Petty) Huston.

Fred graduated from Kokomo High School in 1945 and honorably served his country in the US Navy during WWII. He married Vivian Marlene Cheesman on June 1, 1951 and they enjoyed nearly 66 years together before her passing in 2017.

After retirement from Delco Electronics, General Motors Corporation in 1987, Fred and Vivian moved from Kokomo, IN to Sebring, FL. Fred was a member of The Church of Buttonwood Bay in Sebring, FL.

In addition to his loving wife, Fred was preceded in death by his parents, his parents-in-law, Richard H. and Nola Blanche Cheesman, and all of his siblings including Betty L. Westerman, Harry S. Huston, Jr., Richard D. Huston, and Jacquelyn J. Clevenger as well as each of their respective spouses.

Fred is survived by his children, Jerrell Lee Sosbe of Bee Spring, KY and Frederick, Jr. of Mukilteo, WA; grandchildren, Ashleigh Sosbe of Bee Spring, KY, Joshua (Olivia Spear) Huston of West Seattle, WA, Kristian Sosbe of Bee Spring, KY, and Spencer Huston of Bellingham, WA; great-grandson Miles Spear Huston of West Seattle, WA; former daughters-in-law, Leslie Longshore Huston of Kokomo, IN and Keree Temple Huston of Bothell, WA; brother- and sister-in-law James R. and Mary Jane Cheesman of Hilton Head, SC and sister-in-law Marletta J. Smith of Monroeville, AL; and several nieces and nephews.

Fred was an honest, hardworking man who loved and provided for his family. His grit, determination, and stubbornness were legendary with each trait also being instilled into his loved ones. Fred had a quick, dry wit and a great sense of humor and it was rare for anyone who had ever met him to forget him. He will live in his family's hearts for eternity.
