I believe the day we shared a memory together was about a week before she went to hospice. Judy, Betty and I met with Ann at her house and shared a glass of wine and some memories that was a beautiful day.

I have bought a Square metal picture frame and for some reason, I could not get the corners to meet. I tried several times so I called Ann She came to my house and finished the metal picture frame. So my lesson was if I ever bought another Squared metal picture frame I'll give Ann a call. She was so nice and so many different ways.
