Having known Brenda for many years, working on various projects at the Wildwood Masonic Lodge, through many breakfasts, dinners or just general cleaning you could always depend on Brenda for help. She was a dear hardworking lady who loved her family. My deepest sympathy to her family. I will be unable to attend her funeral on Friday due to a prior commitment. Rest in Peace Brenda, enjoy God's Heavenly realm Sharon McCurry

I did not know you well. You were married to my brother, Jack, for fifty-plus years, but my husband's job took us so far away that we never had the opportunity to become friends. I just want to say "Thank you" for making my brother happy all those years. You're together forever now which was all he ever really wanted. Requiescat in pace.
