Michael Suter lit a candle in honor of Robert.

Robert was an incredible human being, and he enriched all of our lives throughout the years. Witnessing him grow into the man he became and the skills he developed was nothing less than truly amazing. Robert will never be gone because he will always be in our thoughts, memories and in our hearts. Robert, I don't know if you have the ability to recognize heartbreak now in your afterlife, but I know if you do you feel all of ours. With all my love, Uncle Mike.

This will be a very memorable day with Robert. Robert and I went and saw How to train your dragon and went to the Chinese buffet. He gave me a labubu and that evening asked me to be his girlfriend. I will always cherish that memory. To me he will never be forgotten. He was very special and touched my life in a special way. I always loved when he'd send me pictures of his figurines when he'd go out to dinner and position them like they were looking at something or holding something. It made me laugh. He'd send me something funny whenever I was upset Every Single Time. I may not of been in love with him yet but I loved him for who he was.
