Kurt Maehlenbrock lit a candle in honor of Donald.

With heartfelt gratitude, we honor the extraordinary life of our dad and brother who ascended to eternal peace on August 9th at the remarkable age of 92 in Leesburg, FL. His profound legacy of love, kindness, and unwavering dedication continues to inspire countless individuals. The residents of his independent living facility were in awe of his exceptional artistic ability in creating beautiful diamond art, his joyful nightly dinners with his "girls," and his lively cribbage games with his buddies on Tuesday evenings. I was deeply honored to share in his journey with his wife Kathy during their years in The Villages, the three years at his independent living facility after her passing, and finally, during his final days under hospice care at his apartment as he peacefully passed away. May God richly bless his soul. I will deeply miss his wisdom, guidance, and our bi-weekly lunches, which were truly a blessing.
