Mary Joyce Boulay

AUG 8, 1934 - FEB 7, 2026

Mary Joyce Boulay, 91, of The Villages, FL, began her Heavenly journey on February 7, 2026. Joyce was born on August 8, 1934, in Woonsocket, RI, to her loving parents; Arthur and Catherine (Joyce) Haggerty.

Joyce grew up in Rhode Island and worked in management for Verizon for 36 years before her retirement. She then relocated to Somerset, MA, before settling in Florida in 2007. Joyce was of the Catholic faith and was attending St. Timothy's Catholic Church.

She enjoyed spending her time snow skiing, traveling, and was very proud of her Irish heritage. Joyce even visited Ireland several times, which is where she met her loving husband, Paul. She enjoyed crafting and sharing her contagious smile with friends and family.

Joyce is survived by two stepchildren; Charles (Ida) and James (Jane) Boulay, as well as four stepgrandchildren and several stepgreat grandchildren. She is also survived by a loving cousin Jane (Dennis), and numerous other loving extended family members.

Joyce is preceded in passing by her first husband, Skip Gibbons, second husband, Paul Boulay, a brother, Francis Haggerty, and her parents, Arthur and Catherine Haggerty.

Those wishing to honor Joyce's memory may make memorial contributions to Cornerstone Hospice Foundation, 2445 Lane Park Rd, Tavares, FL 32778, (352) 742-6861

My favorite memory of Joyce was her accent and the phrases she'd always say like "you people." I'm also fond of her love of our Irish heritage and the delicious peanut butter pie she'd always make when we visited. We love you Joyce!
