I met Rochelle many years ago as Andrew and I first became great friends in College.... We met At The Student Government Council at UConn. He had the gift of gab and a great intellect, even back then. When I met his Mom, I remember how kind and witty she was - (It clearly runs the family).... I came to visit Andrew in Trumbull, and just remember her treating me with such warmness... I can still feel the comfort in my heart today.I know I am truly blessed to be close to the Berman Family - And I also know that her caring heart always served and helped guide their Noble Family Energy, Throughout the many years.. May God bless that her Spirit will continue to inspire and guide their family - For many Generations..To the Berman Family, we Love you.... We are so sorry for the pain you are experiencing... Know that we are here for you - With gratitude....God Bless you Rochelle

When Shelley became an author, she also became a beacon of light for others. Her book was a triumph and is helping light the way for others who might still be struggling with the dark of a challenging path in life. She showed us that there is always hope and never to give up.Now, having gone on before us, she is a new star in the heavens, as bright a light as when she was with us. Another birthday for a new life.Kudos to you, my friend!Paula Howard
