Aunt Wanda and Uncle Don, had made plans than came and picked up from Onaway. I was in Foster care at the time. We got to take a trip to U.P. went camping, fishing. Had lots of fun with daughter Kim. This wre I first learned to and started my Loved for camping.. We also got to fish in this boat. Got bit by a crayfish he helped me take care of my wound. A true first experience I will never forget thank you Uncle Don and Aunt Wanda, Kim.

Dad, as you embarked on your journey to heaven, we are grieving you. You are now free from all suffering. I will miss you but I know the Lord will care for you. Thank you for showing and instilling your strength, hard working ethics, laughter and patience in me. I love you, until we meet again, rest in heaven.
