

Amy Louise Slaney

January 20, 1957 - February 19, 2021

Amy Slaney (nee Liebmann) January 20, 1957 – February 19, 2021

Amy was born in Appleton Wisconsin. She was one of eleven children of Don and Muriel Liebmann. Amy described herself as “number 7” and could recite the names of her siblings in the order in which they were born.

Amy was always smiling. She was a joy when she was with friends and a loving wife to Bob (Robert) Slaney. Amy and Bob were happily married for 24 years. After meeting in Rochester Minnesota in 1995, Bob moved to Atlanta at the end of 1995 and Amy joined him in November of 1996. She and Bob married on January 11, 1997. They lived in Powder Springs, Georgia.

Amy worked as a copy editor in the newspaper industry and also as a graphics artist and catalog composer for a large automotive parts company. She retired in 2014.

In late 2013, Bob moved to Apollo Beach, Florida, where he moved into what was supposed to be their retirement home. Amy continued to work in the Atlanta area until she retired in April of 2014 and then joined Bob in Florida. Amy did not miss what she called the cold Atlanta winters. After living in Apollo Beach for 5 years, Amy and Bob moved to The Villages in 2018.

Amy loved to knit and later in life took up painting on framed canvases. She loved to walk and enjoyed taking her toy poodle, Diesel, along with her. In 2013, she was diagnosed with Parkinson’s disease which later was diagnosed as Multiple Systems Atrophy. Even though she suffered from the symptoms of this rare disease, she never complained and was always filled with cheer.

She never forgot anyone’s name and she spread joy when she greeted people and friends.

The disease became crippling over time and she spent the final 18 months of her life in a nursing home in the Villages, Florida.

Amy is survived by her loving husband, Bob, and her ten siblings, Larry, David, Eric, Patrick, Karl, Joe, Laura (Isom), Margie (Schwartzbauer), Sara (McMahon), and Nancy (Royster). “ Amy and I worked together in Paynesville, Minnesota, at the newspaper around 1980. She covered sports and schools, I covered town government, and we split everything else. Being strangers in town, we became good friends, spending some fun nights eating Cheetos and drinking Dr. Peppers and listening to music. We stayed in touch for years after we both moved on when she moved to Florida and Louisiana. I've been trying off and on to track her down over the years and was sad to find she had passed away. My belated sympathy to the family. --

“ Amy was an inspiration to me. I saw her once a week, on Tuesdays, the last year of her life. We didn't know it was going to be her last year but she carried on with humor, determination and grit!! She was suffering with MSA but she NEVER felt sorry for herself. I would ask her, “Is there anything I can get you Amy?” Her reply, with a smile, “Yes, a new body.” I miss seeing her.

“ Dear Bob and the Slaney and Liebmann Families,
I have so many great memories as a kid of spending time with the cousins at the cottage and all of our holiday gatherings! I really loved being with you all when I got to spend time at your Appleton home in the winter and ice skating in your back yard rink that Uncle Don worked so hard on! I loved spending time at your cottage in summer!
My Family and I are praying for you during this time, and wish you peace and comfort as we all remember Amy.
Sincerely,
Debbie (Ryan) and Bill Prijic and Family

“ My sincere condolences to Bob and the entire Liebmann family. As I mentioned to Bob, I have wonderful memories of Amy and the Liebmann family. Ice skating every winter night in the back yards and hours-long Monopoly games on the screened porch come to mind. Amy was a treasured friend and I will miss her.

“ We were so very blessed to have met Bob and Amy on our wonderful cruise to South America. They were our dining companions and we looked forward to hearing about each other's daily activities while we enjoyed our meal. Amy was a delightful lady and fun to be around. I remember going to an adult coloring class and sharing a table with Amy...such a lovely afternoon...although we didn't know each other well, we are happy to have met you both and will cherish the time we spent together. We are very saddened by her passing. Our love and condolences to Bob and the rest of her family.
