“ I never knew the sacrifices you made to make sure we had food in our stomachs, clothes on our back, and a good over our head, until I became an adult. You supported me through all my "adventures". I'll always look back with love and admiration, I love you always...

“ I never realized, until after leaving home, the sacrifices you made to keep us kids, with a good bet our heads, clothes on our backs, and food in our stomachs. I'll always love and admire all you did for us. You were my strength and support through all my "adventures". Rest in peace, Mom, you're always in my thoughts and in my heart. I love you always...
