“ I know Will's family's heart is breaking as mine is. He really didn't talk alot. I guess his world here in FL was Amy and he had to accept us as part of the package because she was never far away from us. But I told him several times that he was part of our family too. He loved when Donald had him and his friend work on his car. And I will never forget when he went to Boston and helped take care of his dying Mother. His Mother has her son back. May they rest in peace.

“ My memory of Bill was that he was chill.
He was fun and crazy, but in a fun way.
Believe it or not, I remember him as pretty level headed in nasty situations.
Always came to me to show off his newest tattoo or piercing.
Loved hanging with him on my front porch....just people watching.
Been years!
But doesn't take away the fact that he was cool kid, in my mind and heart.
May he rest in peace.
